

This motto reminds us of our focus on the growth and development of each child. It encapsulates our commitment to the achievement of high standards of teaching and learning. Also it recognises respect for our educational partners and our belief in continuous professional development for staff. Our motto underlines a spirit of co-operation and openness the flourishes with help and support from friends and community.

